

Cast bullet Bench Rest Match

1. Rules and regulations.

The cast bullet match will be run under the rules of the NRA

2. The match is open to any centerfire rifle firing cast lead bullets with Iron Sights

Old style lever action, trap door Springfields or Sharps rifles firing 45/70 or 40/65 can be seen at these types of matches

Accessories.

A. Spotting scopes

B. shooting glasses are mandatory. No shooter will be permitted to participate without acceptable safety or shooting glasses

Classification

No individual classes

Scoring and Target Placement

The target will be the standard NRA 100 yard target.

Best edge scoring.,

Practice targets must be marked as such.

Relay time.

This will be a 2 target match.

10 shots per target for a best score of 200 plus X counts.

There will be 2 relays of 10 shots each..time allotted will be 10 minutes per relay.

Safety

The Bench Rest match will be run by the Match Director/RSO

All instructions must be followed as given by the Match Director RSO.

Safety will be paramount at these matches.

No Dangerous actions will be permitted. As previously stated no smoking on the concrete area. Safety glasses are mandatory.

The Cast Bullet Bench Rest matches either Black Powder or smokeless powder can be used.

These matches are open to members of the Chatuge Gun Club and non members.

If you know someone who fires these types of rifles using cast bullets bring them along to join in the fun.